

Quiz

slido

Join at slido.com
#2062397

① Start presenting to display the joining instructions on this slide.

1. True or False? Disasters are a natural phenomenon, and the impacts are beyond human control.

2. True or False? If your city is resilient, it can withstand and recover from the impact of disasters and other shocks and stresses in a short period of time

3. True or False? Poor urban and local governance, ecosystem decline, climate change, vulnerable livelihoods are examples of the drivers of risk

4. True or False? The only department concerned with reduction of risks is the Emergency Management Department.

5. True or False? Poverty is a socio-economic issue which has no relation to the impact of a disaster.

6. True or False? Using natural ecosystems to reduce disaster risk and enhance city protection is one of the essentials for making cities resilient.

7. True or False? The Scorecard can help to understand the status of resilience and the gaps in risk reduction.

8. True or False? Building consensus and working relationships between the different sectors and departments in the government is not an objective of the Scorecard.

slido

9. True or False? Resilience is a long-term investment, even if the city scores high in the Scorecard today, the situation may change in the future.

slido

10. True or False? Use of the Scorecard is a key step towards development of bankable projects and financing for DRR.